Suggested Items to Bring

- Linen to include pillows, blankets, sheets and towels (cleaning costs for isolation cases are very high, please make every attempt to provide your own linen. If a member cannot provide their own linen, please coordinate with Public Health/Contingency Lodging ahead of time to have linen dropped off during duty hours or have a sponsor pick-up provided linen outside of work hours.
- Plasticware (forks, spoons, etc)
- Additional trash can liners and toilet paper if required
- TV (entertainment items)
- Food Items
- Cleaning disposables (sponges/paper towels for general clean-up)
- Laundry/Dish Detergent
- Hand Soap
- Iron/Ironing Board
- Toiletries
- Small Appliances (toaster, coffee pot, etc...)

Please keep in mind Contingency Lodging is not associated with the Air Force Inns and there is no housekeeping provided. Please inspect your room upon arrival and make minimal contact with surfaces until you have accepted the room in its condition so multiple rooms do not have to be terminally contract cleaned. Upon checkout, ensure all trash and items you have brought are removed and general clean-up is performed. Please wash any used cookware and dishes in the dishwasher or at high heat with dish soap and hot water. If rooms are left in disarray, the member's leadership will be contacted for further processing. We appreciate your assistance!
