End of Course Assessment

Dates Certifier

1. Describe why creativity is important in your work as a family childcare provider.

2. List three activities that foster creativity in children.

3. Discuss how creative expression is linked to brain growth in children.

4.	Describe one product-oriented experience and one process-oriented experience you have implemented in your family childcare program.
,
5.	Name one creative experience you can plan for children in each of the following areas:
	(1) Visual Arts
	(2) Music, Dance, and Movement
	(3) Dramatic Play
	(4) Blocks and Construction Play
	(5)Science and Nature.
6.	Give an example of an open-ended question that will foster imagination and critical thinking skills.

7.	Name two culturally responsive materials you can use in your family childcare program.
8.	List three open-ended creative materials.
0.	Est tire open chaca creative materials.
9.	Five-year-old Cara in your family child care program has difficulty with fine-motor skills. What can you do to ensure that Cara is able to experience creative activities in your program such as drawing and painting?
10.	Describe two ways your family child care home nurtures your creativity as a provider.

12.	Describe three ways to engage families in their children's creative experiences.

11. Name three ways you can express your creativity as a family childcare provider.