KEEP IT REAL

A realistic approach to functional fitness for the military retiree community.

The Beale and Travis Retiree Activities Offices invite military retirees and family members to a special presentation by Dale Collins on a fitness program adapted to the real needs of older people—activities that give confidence and skill in meeting the needs of daily living.

DALE COLLINS is an Exercise Physiologist and the Health Promotion Manager for the 9th Medical Group at Beale AFB. Most importantly, Dale recognizes the need for older people to have a program that can be used in the home, without special equipment, and that can accommodate a range of mobility, stability, and strength concerns.
