People of JBER

What are some of your daily duties at Moose Run Golf Course?

My daily duties include supervising daily operations, merchandise management, and junior golf programming.

What do you like most about working for the Force Support Squadron (FSS)?

I enjoy the relationships that I have been able to build while working for FSS. We all share the same goal of providing great services and support to the JBER community.

How long have you been working on JBER?

This upcoming summer will be my 11th year at Moose Run Golf Course! I started out as a Cart Attendant the summer after finishing high school in 2012 and I take pride in being able to grow within Moose Run and work towards where I am today.

What is the coolest thing about your job?

I do what I love! I genuinely enjoy coming to work every day. Between the long summer days of Alaska, the scenery, and the wildlife, it is tough to beat.

What is your favorite thing to do this time of year?

I enjoy getting outside more and prepping for summer. My daughter will be turning 1 in May so my family and I will be planning ways to get her outside as much as possible.

Fun facts about yourself?

I am a born and raised Alaskan of Inupiaq descent. My family originates from Nome, Alaska which is located in the northwestern part of the state. My great-great-grandfather was one of the first documented teachers in Alaska.

Did you know... Cooper Landing

Cooper Landing straddles the Sterling Highway on the northern side of picturesque Kenai Lake, and although its population doesn't even breach 500 residents, the town is bustling and crowded during the fishing months. Fishing the famous Kenai River draws hundreds and is an amazing experience. Floating upriver in drift boats to catch rainbow trout or sockeye salmon is just as fun as being in a powerboat.

Fishing fever hits an all-time high at the Russian River Campground during the summer months, and fishermen stand shoulder-to-shoulder in what is referred to as "combat fishing." This combat fishing is so popular here that it demands a certain level of etiquette, which has inspired numerous newspaper articles. They serve as a reminder to fishermen of the manners needed in this crowded natural environment.

Proper etiquette is not the only concern of anglers in this region. In fact, bears are frequent visitors to the fishing action and campgrounds situated along the Kenai River. Fishermen are advised to keep a wary eye out when out fishing, lest you be fishing alongside a natural predator.

Cooper Landing offers a wide variety of comfortable accommodations, from lodging, restaurants, and other tourism services. Overnight options include cozy Alaskan B&Bs, rustic lodges, rental cabins, and some RV parks and campgrounds. This includes the Russian River Campground, which boasts over 80 sites for campers of all skill levels.

If you're seeking a more rural and naturalistic experience, however, you can rent a Forest Service Cabin in advance of your arrival at Cooper Landing. These cabins are remote and many require float plane transportation to reach. Flight charters can be arranged in advance at Cooper Landing, as well. If flying to a remote cabin is too much, you can reach other rural cabins by hiking along the Resurrection Pass Trail or the Russian Lakes Trail.

If you're seeking a unique and rural Alaskan fishing adventure, Cooper Landing is certainly the place to be! Ready to start your next big adventure? Contact the JBER ITT office today by calling 753.2378 or by emailing AFTravelAlaska@gmail.com.
