42D FORCE SUPPORT SQUADRON • JULY - SEPTEMBER 2023

COMMANDER'S LETTER

Summer is in full swing in Alabama, and it brings along a busy time for families arriving at Maxwell AFB and Gunter Annex. On behalf of the 42d Force Support Squadron, I extend a warm welcome to Life at the Max!

Whether you have recently arrived for advanced education and training at Air University, relocated to the River Region, or find yourself TDY, our primary objective is to ensure your stay is both enjoyable and productive. Our dedicated team of FSS warriors are here to provide you and your families with the support and resources you require. To familiarize yourself with what we have to offer, I invite you to visit our website, www.lifeatthemax.us, or download the Life at the Max app. There, you will discover comprehensive information on military personnel and family readiness services, fitness programs, education and professional development opportunities, child and youth programs, special events, and more.

Here at Life at the Max, we'd like to encourage you and your families to explore the array of services we offer and provide. If you have questions or need assistance please do not hesitate to reach out to anyone on our team so that we can assist.

Maj Kevin Slaughter, Jr.
Commander, 42d Force Support Squadron

“Mission ready.
Mission focused!”
