ADVENTURE!

Idaho offers a numerous of amazing opportunities for adventure both indoors and out! See our wide variety of museums, hiking spots, and wildlife!

Whether you want a quiet day indoors or adventure in the wilderness, Southwest Idaho has what you're looking for!

Bruneau Dunes, not far from Mountain Home Air Force Base, is home to North America's highest single structured sand dune!

The Boise Green Belt is perfect for a leisurely walk or bike ride, stretching 25 miles from Eagle Island State Park to Discovery State Park.

See Idaho from a different perspective when you go zip lining 120 ft above the Boise National Forest!

For the history buffs out there, check out Fort Boise, the Warhawk Air Museum, or the Idaho State Historical Museum! Or scare your friends at Silver City Ghost Town!

There's something out there for everyone!
