12.3. Morale, Welfare, and Recreation Fund Custodian Responsibilities.

12.3.1. The custodian:

12.3.1.1. Briefs incoming commanders who exercise Special Morale and Welfare expenditure authority on the provisions in this chapter and current installation Special Morale and Welfare policy.

12.3.1.2. Prepares quarterly reports and accounts for all Special Morale and Welfare expenditures using guidance provided in this chapter and Attachment 6.

12.3.1.3. Ensures quarterly reports are reconciled to supporting expenditure documents and to quarterly balances in the financial statements. The Major Command or installation financial manager and Judge Advocate, as appropriate, reviews/coordinates on all quarterly reports.

12.3.1.4. Conducts internal control reviews on issued nonappropriated fund petty cash funds and nonappropriated fund purchase cards.

12.4. Permissible Expenditures. Commanders and others delegated approval authority will not expend funds for Special Morale and Welfare purposes if the expenditures are authorized elsewhere in this instruction or authorized from appropriated funds (Air Force Instruction 65-601, Volume 1, or Air Force Instruction 65-603). This paragraph provides definitions of terms and lists examples of permissible Special Morale and Welfare expenditures as authorized in Table 12.1 \(T-0\)
